

I am a daily listener to a radio station that is heard on FM Translators - Air 1. This is a Christian radio station that I believe is very important to our community. This station gives people an alternative message than most radio stations, a positive Christ based message and Christ based music. Even if you have no interest in this type of station, the thousands or hundreds of thousands of people who do listen, should not be denied this opportunity.

Debra Scaife